Statement issued on 19 July 1994 by the Presidency on behalf of the European Union on Yemen

The European Union welcomes the end of the fighting in the Republic of Yemen.

The European Union calls on the Yemeni Government to engage in political dialogue with all parties to bring about lasting peace and stability in Yemen. It welcomes the Yemeni Government's statement of 12 July, in particular its commitment to democratic order, political pluralism, freedom of opinion and respect for human rights, and its readiness to pay compensation for loss of property. States of the region should respect international obligations including sovereignty and territorial integrity.

The European Union has contributed over 2 million ECU to the relief effort in and around Aden. It continues to attach great importance to the flow of humanitarian aid to the Yemeni people.
